GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS HERFKENS AND KELMAN TO PSYCHOLOGY BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Kris Herfkens, of Orange County and Jane H. Kelman of Summerfield to the North Carolina Psychology Board.

Herfkens is a neuropsychologist at Triangle Neuropsychological Services. She received her Bachelor's degree in history at Carleton College in Northfield, Minn. and her Doctorate in clinical psychology at the University of Tulsa in Oklahoma.

Kelman is a psychological consultant in private practice. She received a Bachelor's degree in psychology from Lycoming College in Williamsport, Penn. and a Master's degree in psychology from Bucknell University in Lewisburg, Penn.

The board licenses qualified persons to practice psychology and takes disciplinary action when licensees are found to be practicing in violation of law and ethics. The board also ensures that non-licensed individuals do not practice psychology or represent themselves as psychologists. The board has seven members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints all members.
